B My Bordeaux - Christer BYKLUM

"Trotz kräftigen Holzeinsatzes zunächst reduktiv. Dunkle Schokolade. Mit Luft Kirsche und Grüntee. Seidig und saftig am Gaumen, nicht im Übermaß weich, mit reifem, mürbem Tannin und würzigen, ganz leicht Paprika-artigen Gaumenaromen. Appetitlich ausgewogen, salzig mit gut integrierter, milder Säure."

Weinverstand - Ulrich SAUTTER

Score 88/100

The Winepatriot - Antoon LAURENT

Punkte 89-91/100 "Tiefdunkles Rubingranat, opaker Kern, violette Reflexe, zarte Randaufhellung, zart balsamisch unterlegte Nuancen von Dörrzwetschken, kandierte Orangenzesten. Mittlerer Körper, frische Kirschen, gut integrierte Tannine, frisch strukturiert, Noten von Zwetschken im Abgang, ein lebendiger Speisenbegleiter."

Gilbert and Gaillard Guide - Tasting 2017

"Follower of the biodynamie, Jean-Yves Béchet made of his property one of the references in Côtes de Bourg. To make the most of his vineyard, he distributes the fruit between three vintages of increasing ambition. Good named "Maldoror" represents the heart of its production and gives the example of an accomplished wine and without ostentation. This wine doubles his refinement by a delicious nature and a dynamics of expression in his measure."

La feuille de vigne, www.lafdv.fr - Mohamed BOUDELLAL - 12 December 2017

Score 90/100 "The burnt-orange and plum aromas are enticing. The medium to full body gives the firm and silky tannins a nice balance. Tight and focused. Give it two years to come together. Drink in 2020."

Expressive, inviting, measured and very pure bouquet! Subtle hints of cherries. On the palate the wine is supple, elegant and well held by melted tannins. A sapid and full-bodied wine with a freshness on the finish. Now – 2030 - Rating 92/100 Yves Beck - Nov 2021
